

Discovery Science Questionnaires

WebQ™ – a web-based questionnaire assessing illness features and psychological function. Can be used for assessing inclusion/exclusion criteria and specific aspects of well-being. Includes symptom measures, and assessment of substance dependence.

BRISC™ – Brain Resource's shorter, web-based questionnaires including key measures of risk and resilience

Measures Available:

Demographics

- Demographics (10 questions on DOB, sex, country of birth, marital status, height, weight, occupation, education x 2, ethnic origins)
- Handedness (15 questions)

Medical history and psychological measures

- Vision, hearing, mobility/dexterity, mobile phone use learning/dyslexia, psychiatric/psychological, neurological, sleep x 2, eating, tobacco, alcohol, marijuana, recreational drugs, surgery, physical trauma)(16 trigger questions for optional sections 1-15)
- Axis-I symptoms (SPHERES, draws on PHQ; 34 questions)
- Caffeine, Alcohol, Addictive Drugs (3 questions for harmful use)
- Prescription medications (5 questions x max. of 3 medications)
- Feeling and Self Regulation: Wellbeing and Personality Profile questions
- Depression Anxiety and Stress Scale-21 (21 questions)
- BRIEF (Brain Resource Inventory of Emotional intelligence Factors; 14 questions)
- NEO-FFI (NEO-Five Factor Inventory, 60 item)
- BRISC (Brain Resource Inventory of Social Cognitions; 45 questions)
- Environment: Stressors
- Early Life Stress (19 questions)
- Traumatic life events (11 trigger questions for optional sectional 16 on DSM trauma criteria)

Additional section (based on trigger questions)

- Vision (2 questions)
- Hearing (2 questions)
- Mobility/Dexterity (2 questions)
- Mobile phone (4 questions)
- Learning (difficulties/dyslexia; 5 questions)
- Psychiatric/Psychological (8 questions)
- Neurological (8 questions)
- Sleep (A survey screen for prediction of Apnea, plus 16 questions on sleep disturbance)
- Eating (disordered eating, Patient Health Questionnaire, 7 questions)
- Tobacco-Smoking (Fagerstrom Test for Nicotine Dependence, 6 questions)
- Alcohol (AUDIT WHO Alcohol Use Disorders Identification Test, 10 questions)
- Marijuana (3 questions)
- Recreational Drugs (2 questions)
- Surgery (3 questions)
- Physical Trauma (7 questions)
- Traumatic experiences (DSM-IV Criterion A trauma, 30 questions)

..... solutions for brain research

Contact us: discovery@brainresource.com